

ALC Eligibility

1. You are voluntarily participating in the sport of lacrosse and that you enter into this declaration of your own free will and will participate only if I am physically, medically, and psychologically prepared to participate.
2. You've had the requirements of ALC/MCLA eligibility explained to you by your coaches or team officers as specified in the ALC ELIGIBILITY GUIDELINES document.
3. You voluntarily choose to comply with all eligibility requirements as defined by the ALC, including the random spot checking of your academic records during the Spring season by eligibility chair of the MCLA or by President of the ALC.
4. If your academic status changes at any time during the 2021 Spring season and you become ineligible, you will notify your lacrosse team player representative, head coach, and the ALC Competition Coordinator without delay.
5. To disclose your educational records. Specifically, you give consent to disclose only to authorized representatives of the Southeastern Lacrosse Conference, MCLA, and the NCAA, the following documents:
 - A. this ALC ELIGIBILITY/DECLARATION form
 - B. any transcripts from your high school, your collegiate institution, any junior college or any other four-year institution that you have attended.
 - C. any papers or information obtained by the Atlantic Lacrosse Conference or your collegiate institution pertaining to your eligibility.
6. That you have arranged for and are covered by any desired or necessary accidental, medical, health, and liability insurance.
7. That you give consent to the ALC, MCLA, my institution, any competing or host institution, or organization of any ALC or MCLA sanctioned activity or event to provide, arrange for, through a medical or training staff of its choice, customary medical/athletic training attention, transportation, and emergency medical services as may appear warranted in the course of my participation in ALC or MCLA sanctioned events.
8. That you are aware and appreciate the risks, including the risk of catastrophic injury, paralysis, and even death, as well as other damages and losses associated with participation in a lacrosse event and willing assume such risks. I further agree on behalf of myself, my heirs and personal representatives, that the ALC, the MCLA, the host institution or organization and sponsors of any ALC or MCLA sanctioned event, along with the officials, coaches, participants, medical/athletic personnel, volunteers, employees, agents, officers and directors of these organizations, shall not be liable for any injury, loss of life or other loss or damage occurring as result of my participation in the event.
